

As a crewmember for American Airlines, I stongly object to in-flight cell phone use to an already tense environment. It is already difficult to get them to turn the phones off at departure and pay attention to the safety demonstration, announcements, and compliance. This will also allow easier communication to those who want to take over the flight.

ABSOLUTELY NO IN-FLIGHT CELL PHONE USE!

Sincerely,

Andy Tan
American Airlines